Mostly tall, erect plants, branching at the top of the stem. The flowers are in small heads, together forming a broad, often flat cluster. Lower leaves broadly lance-shaped; uppermost leaves usually alternate. Flower heads longer than wide.