White flowers, turning pink as they fade, 1/3” wide; stamens long and conspicuous, drooping beneath the flower. Sepals relaxed. Leaves lance-shaped, slightly toothed. 2-5’ (61-152 cm) high. At the Peacock/Woodworth Prairie, begins to bloom about the 1st week of August.